

Accepting phone calls at any time of the day or night

Agreeing to be a counsellor

Agreeing to do jobs and then dropping them (knowingly) without letting anyone know

Angry phone calls to Friends

Asking for a meeting with Area Meeting Elders and Overseers to share concerns

Asking how an appointment went

Asking to hold someone in the Light and giving personal details during Meeting for Worship.

Being very fidgety in Meeting for Worship

Collecting prescriptions

Committing to a regular meeting or activity with the Friend

Contacting the counsellor or therapist who the Friend is seeing

Encouraging a carer to seek respite

Enquiring about the process/progress of a Friend's counselling or therapy

Enquiring when a Friend is not present at Meeting

Frequent repetitive ministry

Giving a Friend a role in the Meeting to increase self-esteem or their sense of belonging

Giving emergency phone numbers

Giving lifts to places

Giving money/ financial support [to a distressed Friend] – as a one off or regularly

Giving the contact numbers of other members without their consent

Holding a Meeting for Clearness when a Friend's behaviour is difficult for the Meeting to contain

Holding a threshing meeting to find a way forward in supporting a member or attender

Hugging

Including the friend in everything one does

Interpreting a Friend's dreams	Inviting a [distressed] Friend to a concert, cinema, or theatre or to go for a walk	Inviting a [distressed] Friend to come and stay in your home
Inviting a Friend to join you on holiday	Inviting someone to stay overnight	Lending money
Liaising with someone from the Community Mental Health Team	Long rambling ministry	Making a regular appointment to meet with a Friend outside Meeting
Making appointments for a Friend to visit a counsellor	Making up medicine trays for a Friend	Ministering about a Friend's distress
Ministry centred on personal problems	Monitoring a Friend's compliance with medication regime	Offering a Meeting for Clearness to an individual Friend
Offering therapy without cost	Offering to sit with someone who is mentally distressed to give the carer some respite	Open repeated complaints about the Meeting
Preaching	Regularly arriving very late for meeting	Repeated demands of the meeting
Sending cards to a Friend	Sharing concerns about a Friend with Area Meeting	Sharing concerns with the family of a distressed Friend

Sharing examples of inappropriate behaviour with Elders and Overseers

Sharing personal information about the illness with others in Meeting

Sleeping in Meeting for Worship

Speaking to a Friend after Meeting about inappropriate ministry

Standing silently during inappropriate ministry

Standing uncomfortably close to women

Suggesting books that may be of help

Suggesting that a carer needs respite

Taking a Friend to therapy or to a hospital or doctor's appointment

Taking the friend in as a lodger

Talking about the devil, Satan or evil

Upset at the slightest thing, so everyone feels they are treading on egg-shells

Vocally eldering inappropriate ministry